

Meet Me Under the Storytelling Tree!

Celebrating Arkansas Children's Week

April 22-28, 2012

Sponsored by the Arkansas Department of Human Services
Division of Child Care and Early Childhood Education

Library Scavenger Hunt for Families

Grades K-6

Meet Me Under the Storytelling Tree!

Discover the world at your local library! How many of the items on the list you can find together? Write down the names of your favorites so that you can find them next time you visit the library.

_____ A book about an interesting person in real life

My favorite book about a real person is _____

_____ A book that helps you learn how to do something new

My favorite book how to do something new is _____

_____ A book of poems

My favorite book of poems is _____

_____ A book about a faraway place that you've never been, but would like to visit

My favorite book about a faraway place is _____

_____ A book of stories from very long ago

My favorite book of stories from very long ago is _____

_____ A book that has won an award

My favorite award-winning book is _____

_____ A book with chapters or a novel

My favorite chapter book/novel is _____

_____ A book about nature

My favorite book about nature is _____