Re: Name of Child Represented in Home Where Alleged Abuse is Reported or Alleged Juvenile Offender of Underaged Juvenile Offender is Placed: _____

The Division of Children and Family Services or Arkansas State Police Crimes Against Children Division received an allegation of suspected child maltreatment involving the foster home where the above named child is in care. The incident was reported on (date) _____.

Pursuant to Arkansas Code Ann. §12-18-708, this is your notice or confirmation that:

- Based on the preponderance of the evidence, the allegation has been determined true and the offender's name should be placed in the Child Maltreatment Central Registry.
- Based on the preponderance of the evidence, the allegation has been determined true, but exempt, and the offender's name should not be placed in the Child Maltreatment Central Registry.

The type of maltreatment was _____.

Please note that the alleged offender has a right to contest the agency investigation determination by requesting an administrative hearing within 30 days of notice of the investigative determination. The alleged offender's name will not be placed on the Child Maltreatment Central Registry until the later of:

- (A) The expiration of 30 days without a hearing request; or
- (B) The day the administrative law judge upholds the true investigative determination.
