RE: Informal comment on draft ACS Renewal document

As discussed in the ACS Waiver Provider Meeting held on February 2, 2016, the draft ACS Waiver Renewal application is being posted for informal comment. As stated at the meeting, this draft has not been reviewed for approval by the Division of Medical Services and is intended for informational purposes only. Informal comments are being accepted through February 18, 2016. Please feel free to submit your comments/questions through the link on the website. We will share the comments/questions collected during this informal comment period with the Division of Medical Services and Executive level as part of the renewal process.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.
