

Media Alert

---

Contact:

Amy Webb, Director of Communications
(501) 682-8650

Legislative Committees to Tour New Education Building at AJATC

What: Members of the Senate Children and Youth Committee, Senate Education Committee, House Education - K-12 Vocational-Technical Institutions Subcommittee, and House Aging, Children & Youth, and Military & Legislative Affairs – Children and Youth Subcommittee will tour the new education building at the Arkansas Juvenile Assessment and Treatment Center near Alexander and then hold a joint meeting. The building was paid for using American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 funds.

When: Tuesday, Sept. 27, 2011, at 10 a.m.

Where: Arkansas Juvenile Assessment and Treatment Center
1501 Woody Drive
Bryant, Arkansas

Directions from Little Rock -- Drive west on Interstate 30. Take the Alexander County Line exit. Veer to the right. You will come to a dead end at Arkansas Highway 5 (you should be facing a cemetery). Make a left. Take a right on Woody Drive.

Video and still cameras will be allowed, though the faces of children at the facility cannot be shown.