
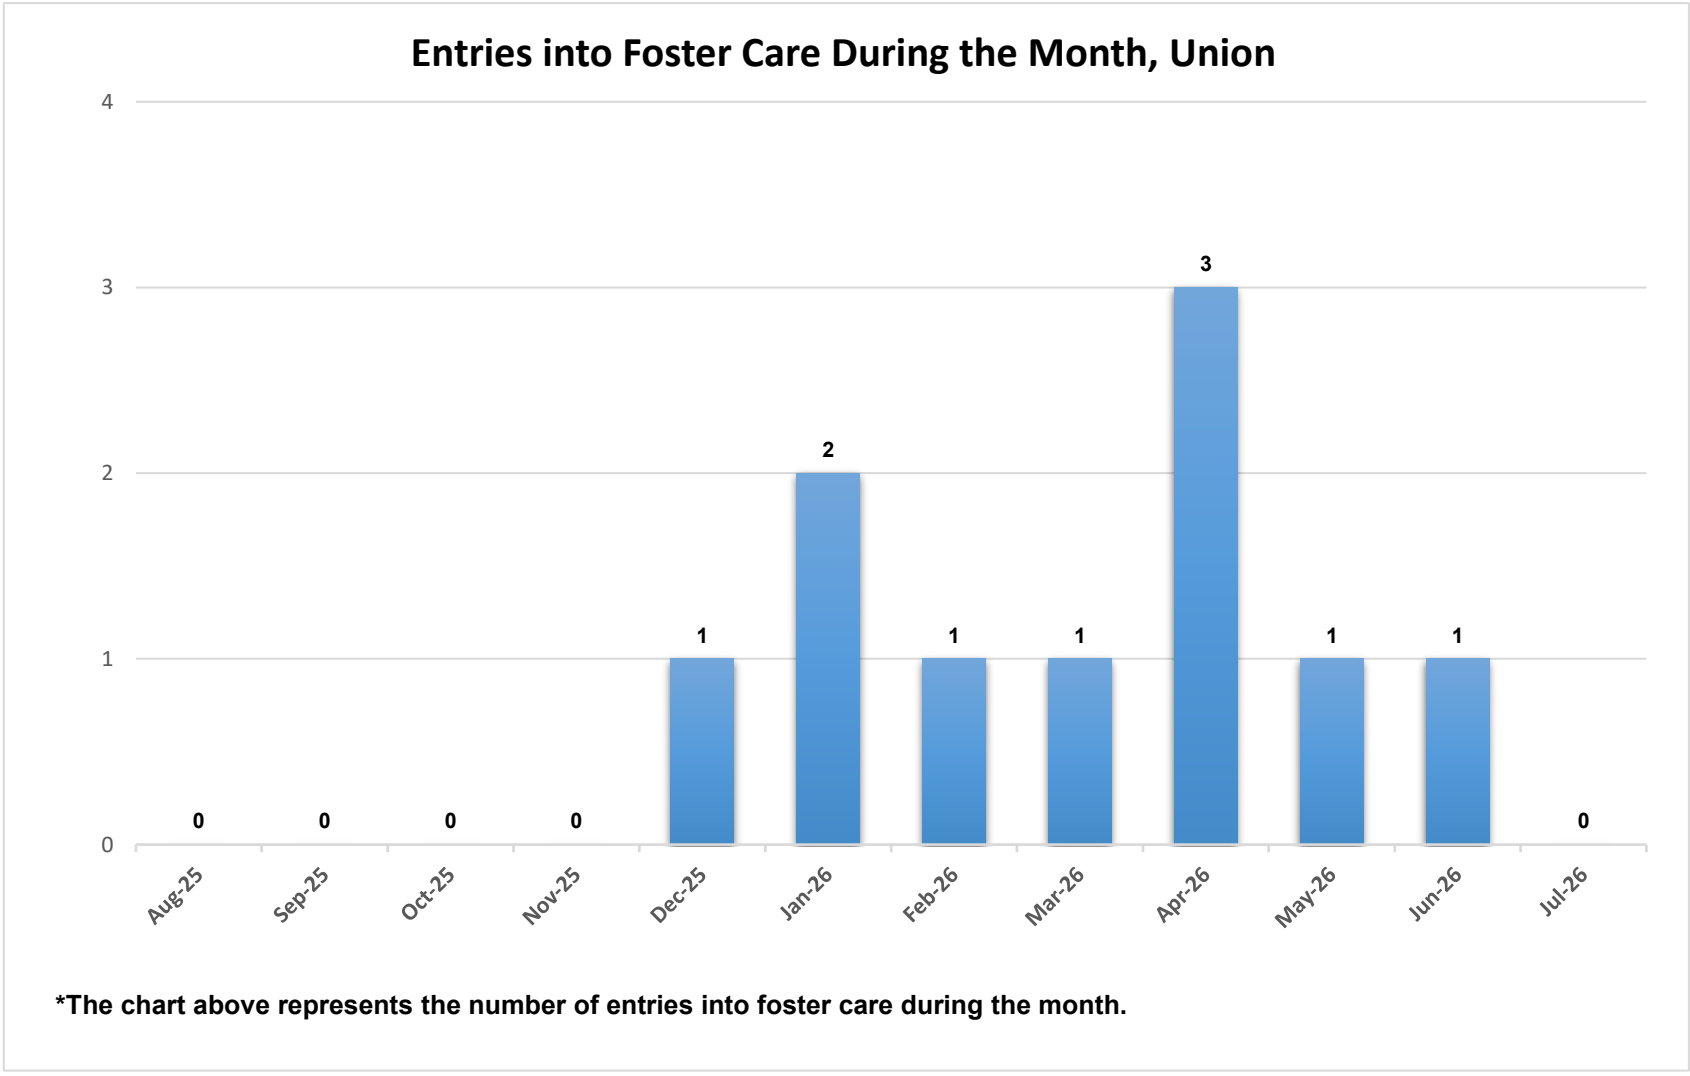
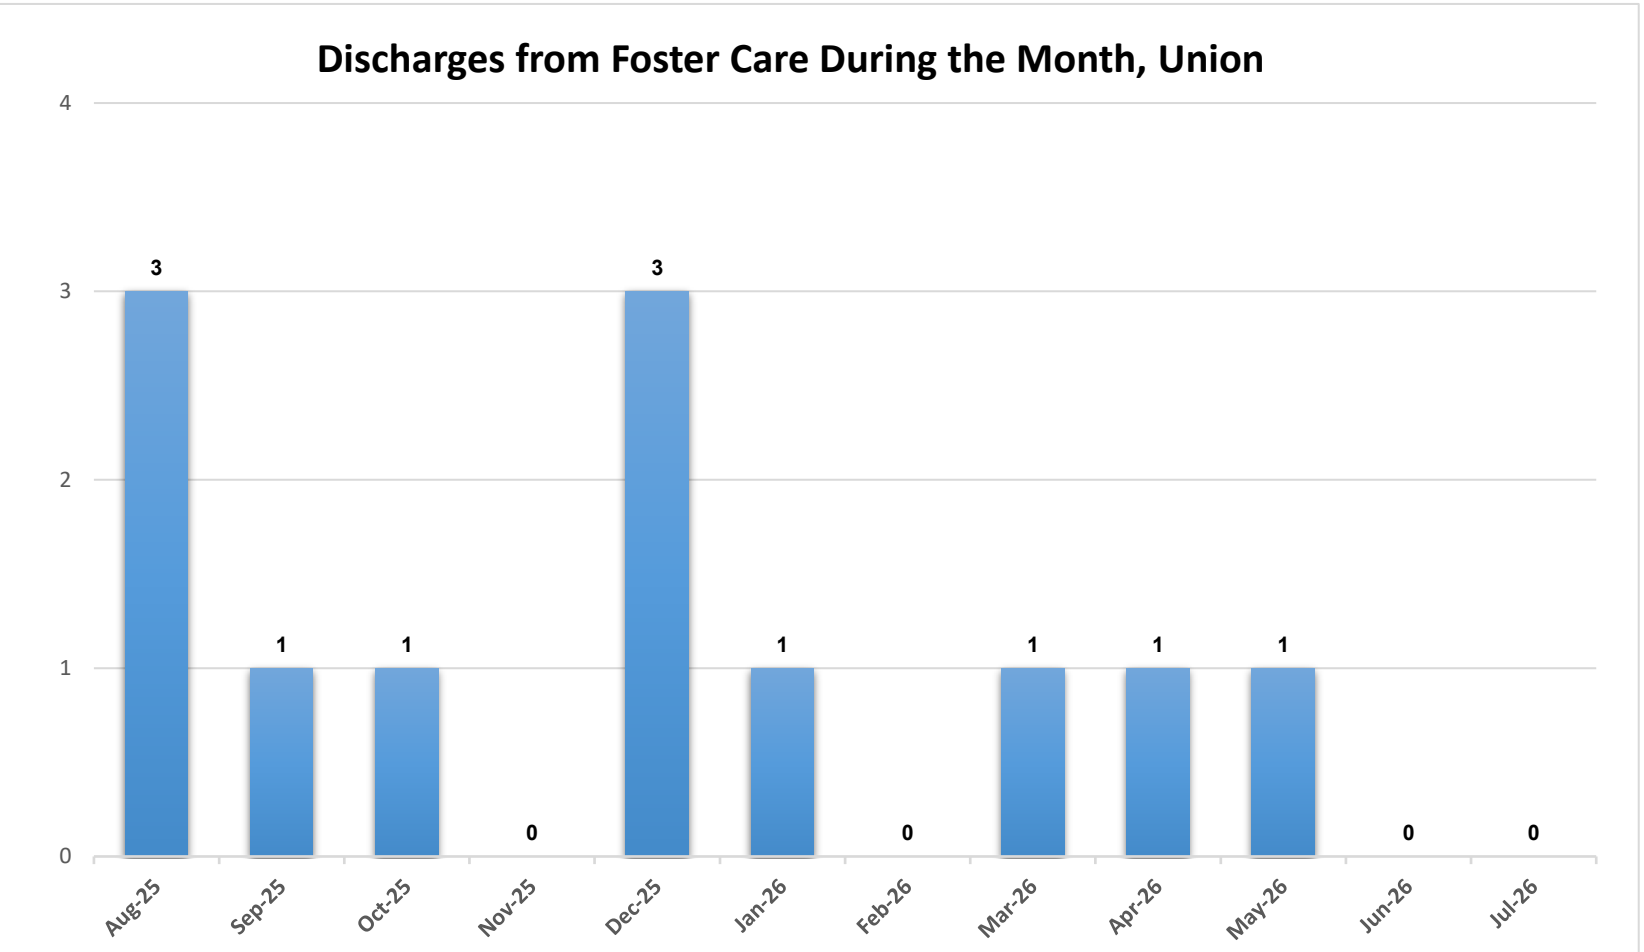
*The chart above represents the number of children in foster care at the end of the month.



*The chart above represents the number of entries into foster care during the month.



*The chart above represents the number of discharges from foster care during the month.

Children Entering Care whose First Placement is with Relative, Union

The chart above represents the percentage of entries into care for the 12-month period concluding at the end of each month in which the child's first placement was with a relative or fictive kin.

The chart above represents the percentage of children residing with relatives at the end of each month.

*Children are considered to be residing with relatives if they are placed in a provisional relative or provisional fictive kin home, relative or fictive kin foster home, relative pre-adoptive home, ICPC home, or temporary family placement.

The chart above represents the number of children who have resided in foster care for 24 consecuive months or longer at the end of the month.

The chart above represents the number of homes approved as either a foster family home (including relative/fictive kin foster homes and those recruited by private agencies), therapeutic foster home, and/or provisional home at the end of each month. Prior to March 2026, this chart had excluded provisional and therapeutic foster homes.

The chart above represents the percentage of required visits made by social service specialists to see children in foster care during the month.

The chart above represents the percentage of required visits made by social service specialists to see in-home families during the month.

The chart above represents the percentage of required visits made by social service specialists to see prevention services families during the month.

The chart above represents the average social service specialist caseload at the end of each month.

The chart above represents the number of overdue investigations at the end of each month.

An investigation that is overdue does not mean that the investigation is being ignored or is not being actively worked; rather, it signifies that the investigation has not yet been fully completed and approved within the required timeframe.