Rate Justification

Free Will Baptist Family Ministries is requesting a rate of $74.50 to handle foster child placements and the opening of foster family homes. The oversight and management will be handled primarily through our foster agency located at the Young Homes in Fort Smith, Arkansas.

The breakdown of the rates is below:

$34.00 a day being paid to the house parents for the board rate.

$40.50 a day for the daily agency rate.

The following services will be provided with the agency rate:

- Provide background checks for foster parents;
- PRIDE training for foster parents;
- SAFE home studies to open the foster homes;
- Transportation for the children for court ordered visits;
- Oversight of the foster families and the children in-care;
- Respite care if needed or required for foster families;
- Support services for the foster families;
- Assisting with the reunification or adoption case plan goals;
- And ensuring the well-being of each foster child in-care.

Family Ministries is committed to the success of the foster families by working to ensure the safety and wellbeing of each child in-care. The support services will include but not limited to finding avenues for food donations, entertainment opportunities, vehicles, etc.
